At times, we need to change the texts used for various reasons. However, as far as we know, these will be the texts used for your 2023 exam.

- Please note these books are for the WHOLE of your Literature course. You do NOT have to buy all of these straight away.
- Please see your Summer Bridging work as top priority work (see separate sheet).
- 'Wuthering Heights' must be read for the first day of your A-level.
- 'Birdsong' is the longest text. You may wish to get ahead with this one.
- You will be given wider reading lists during your course.
- You are studying the AQA A-level English Literature A course (7712).
